

Home Economics Teacher Excellence Awards

The Queensland Division of the Home Economics Institute of Australia invites nominations for the Home Economics Teacher Excellence Awards, 2010. This is a wonderful opportunity to recognise and celebrate the outstanding work done by home economics practitioners. Home Economics teachers contribute much to education in Queensland and this is one way our profession can acknowledge practitioners who excel.

The Excellence Awards will be presented at the state conference on Saturday 7 August 2010. Regional functions may be arranged to celebrate awardees from regional centres.

Nominations are invited for teachers who have, in recent times, demonstrated excellence consistently in several facets of home economics education e.g. quality teaching practice, innovative teaching practice, exemplary curriculum development, quality student outcomes and success, outstanding professional commitment

Nominees considered for this award must be current financial (individual or school) members of HEIA Inc.

A member who has received an HEIA(Q) Excellence in Teaching Award is eligible for re-nomination three years after receiving the award.

A maximum of three awards will be presented. A panel will review the nominations.

In order to nominate a colleague, please complete the Nomination Form overleaf and forward the completed form and supporting details to:

Who are you going to nominate?

HEIA(Q) would like to acknowledge quality teachers within our profession, but we need your help.

It's time to share with others the great work done by Home Economics teachers. Please tell us about their activities and achievements.

The nomination form can be found overleaf or on the web site at www.heia.com.au/heiaq.

Closing date for nominations is Friday 23 July, 2010.

Recipients will receive their award at the state conference on Saturday 7 August, 2010.

Be proud to be a Home Economics teacher in Queensland.
