

Home Economics Teachers

You can't afford to miss this.....

BIG DAY OUT

At Annie's Lane,
south of Clare, near Watervale

Preliminary Notice Friday 17th

*Be informed, discerning and up with the latest!
See and hear from these "cutting edge" speakers*

~Dr Manny Noakes~

Senior Research Dietician for CSIRO (co-author of CSIRO Well Being Diet)
to speak on Australian dietary and lifestyle issues

~Chef Ragini Dey, Dhaba @The Spice Kitchen~

Winner of Best Indian Restaurant in both South Australia and Australia
2009

"Cooking with spice - how to get the best results and different techniques used in spice cooking" demmo and tastings

~Prof Andy Barr~

Grains Industry Consultant, Farmer, Southern panel member of GRDC, Member of Board of Trustees CIMMYT (International Wheat and Maize Centre,) formerly Barley and Oat Breeder and Professor of Plant Breeding, to speak on Global Food Issues and GM food technology

~Justin Foot, Regency TAFE~

Hospitality Publicity Officer to address food trade links

~Ian Howlett, Future SACE~

Implementation Officer. Opportunity to hear about and discuss progress of New SACE Stage 1 & 2.

~Bruce Guerin, Slow Food movement~

"Good, clean, fair food"

~Maria Salomansen, Textile artist~

Felting Demonstration and workshop

~Allmake sewing centre~

Basic machine servicing and repairs plus demonstrating latest models of machines

While you're there, get your knives and scissors sharpened by "Flamin' Sharp".

PLUS Clare Valley Cuisine, "pick and mix" tables, loads of free stuff, lesson ideas, displays, resources and much, much more. Wine tastings after 5pm

Expressions of interest and info from

Gaye Kuerschner

(gaye.kuerschner@phs.sa.edu.au)

at Peterborough High School

Reminder notices and registration details to be sent closer to this premier event and feel free to let any Home
Ec teachers know.